OUT ON THE LIMB with George Vierhus

SOME OF YOU may have noticed that in a picture that was run in the paper last week, Mayor Ralph Doetsch appeared to be using a block of wood in signing the proclamation for Youth Appreciation Week.

Youth Appreciation Week, incidentally is sponsored by the Optimist Club and Oran Slaght, of the local Optimist Club, was at Ralph's shoulder when the proclamation was signed.

The week is dedicated to promoting community-wide recognition of the vast majority of the youth of the country who are constructive and responsable citizens.

But to get back to that apparent block of wood that Ralph was using.

It was a real pen, admittedly out-sized, but which actually writes.

It is about eight-inches long and two inches wide, made of wood.

IT HAS A reserved spot on our desk and is used on special occasions. It has to be used sparingly, for there is a label on the side that specifies "Big Deals".

Ralph used our office to sign the proclamations.

We picked it up last year when we were a gawking tourist in Amsterdam. It was displayed in one of the stores specializing in souvenirs for gullible American travelers.

Although it may be a neat conversation-piece, it is by no means a real souvenir of Holland.

To go with the English words "Big Deal" on the side, the label on the top reports "Made in Italy".

Sort of a cosmopolitan pen, wouldn't you say?

We probably could have picked up the same item here for less money without crossing the ocean to get it.

But then we wouldn't be able to tell those who ask about it, "OH, that's a little something we picked up in Amsterdam."

Big deal!!

CITY ATTORNEY JOE BONACINA recently reported to us that he was making progress in drafting a new city ordinance, as directed by the City Council, to control cats within the city limits.

We had asked CAT-egorically how the ordinance was coming along.

Joe reported progress.

Then to reassure us, he added: "I haven't been DOGGING it on that cat ordinance, it just takes time."

We felt that it was wise not to pursue the matter so we didn't HOUND him any farther.

No telling where this could have ended.

In Campbell Union High School District

Former board member takes place of trustee who returns to faculty

In a unique two-way shift in upper echelon personnel of the Campbell Union High School District in recent weeks, a former school board member has been reappointed as trustee.

And a trustee, who was formerly a teacher in the district, has resigned to accept a district academic supervisorial position.

William L. Murphy, a rancher in the Union district, who after serving two terms on the board of the district but who did not run for reelection in 1964, is the "new" board member.

Murphy was appointed on the board in place of Jim Gillespie, who resigned to accept the position of supervisor of physical education for the seven high schools in the district.

As in the case of Murphy, Gillespie is no stranger to his new duties. He was a member of the district physical education staff for six years (from 1955 to 1961) at both Campbell and Camden high schools. Prior to coming to the Campbell district, he taught in the Live Oak High School District for three years.

He resigned from his school duties in 1961 to enter the insurance field and was elected a trustee of the district two years later in 1963 and has almost completed his full term.

Gillespie is a graduate of San Jose State where he also received his masters degree in physical education. He and his wife of 15 years resides at 18353 Clemson, Saratoga, and they have two boys, 13 and 11 years of age. Gillespie also serves as a director of the Campbell Community Hospital.

Murphy was originally elected to the board of trustees in 1957 and during his two terms served as clerk and president. He and his wife have long been active in school activities both in the Union elementary, where his wife served on the board, and in the high school district.

Other members of the board include, Emerson (Doc) Arends, president; William Lloyd; Mrs. Dorothy Goble and Vern Rutlen.

At $150 per months

City councilmen may get salaries

Campbell city councilmen, for the first time since the city was incorporated in 1952, will receive monthly salaries, if an ordinance that was submitted on Monday night is adopted on Nov. 28.

If the councilmen give their approval at the second reading at their next meeting, they will begin receiving salaries of $150 per month each starting in January, 1967.

Under recent state legislation, cities within the population range of 5000 to 30,000 are authorized to pay councilmen monthly stipends of $150.

Councilman Ed Rogers voted against submitting the salary ordinance for first reading until all the legal ramifications concerning it had been clarified.

One of the questions raised was whether paying salaries for the first time came under the prohibition that elective officials cannot raise their salaries during their current term of office. However, a recent ruling has specified that this does not apply during wartime conditions.

Campbell voters follow trend

Campbell voters in the general election on Nov. 8, pretty much followed the statewide trend which put Republicans in all the state offices except that of attorney general.

However, Bert Betts, the Democratic incumbent for state treasurer, had a 466 vote lead in Campbell (3586 to 3120) over Ivy Baker Priest, the successful GOP challenger who won on the statewide basis.

Two state senate districts extend into Campbell (14th and 13th) as do two assembly districts (24th and 25th).

Campbell voters split their "ticket" in these cases.

Mothers gain city approval for guard at expressway

"Mother's Day" was celebrated early at the City Council meeting Monday night when the councilmen agreed with a group of concerned mothers that the pedestrian crossing of the heavily-traveled San Tomas Expressway at Campbell Ave. was dangerous especially for school children.

And the council put its money where its mouth was, by authorizing that a crossing guard be stationed at the intersection "island" twice a day when youngsters are going to and from school.

County approval, it was pointed out, however, must first be obtained for the crossing guard, as the expressway is under county jurisdiction.

The action Monday night was a tangible effort by the council to alleviate a hazardous pedestrian traffic problem that has existed since the expressway was under construction.

Present at the meeting Monday was a group of mothers of school-age youngsters who have been in the forefront of the battle to improve the crossing from the beginning.

Before the council approved the crossing guard, Bill Wren, public works director, explained that part of the danger at the intersection might be alleviated by widening the sidewalk from Virginia

Campbell Ave. Christmas lights will not glow

Until a long-needed major "face-lifting" operation is performed on downtown Campbell Ave. the stringing of slightly battered Christmas street decorations will not improve the situation on the street to any degree.

That was the reasoning of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce last week in deciding not to sponsor or underwrite the annual fund-raising drive necessary before any decorations can be installed.

But the directors left the door open in two ways. They indicated, first, that their action would not keep individual business houses on the street, as is the case of the five shopping centers within the city limits, of combining their efforts in a joint decorating project.

Secondly, the direc-

Basset hound litter of 12 keeps household hopping

Since Sept. 12 when the unsinkable "Molly Brown," a registered Basset Hound owned by Mr. and Mrs. Bill McLain gave birth to 13 puppies, her first litter, things have not been quite the same at the McLain household at 431 Queens Court.

One puppy died at birth but 12 are now healthy, lively, loveable canine "juvenile delinquents" that by comical antics, somewhat offset the extra chores they have caused the McLains, who plan to keep just one, "Tanker" of the outsized family group.

McLain, who is chairman of the Parks and Recreation Commission, acted (for the first time) as the "midwife" when Molly's hour had arrived. He recalls that the first pup arrived on the scene at 6 p.m. on Sept. 12 and the last one was delivered at 10:30 a.m. the next day. Bill claims he was more tired than "Molly" when the ordeal was finished.

The proud father of the brood is "Toby" a three-year-old, who with "Molly" and "Tanker" will remain with the McLains after the other pups are sold.

C of C to host new members on Thursday

New members of the Chamber of Commerce gained during the concentrated "presidential sweepstakes" drive that began on Monday morning will be guests of the C. of C. at the monthly luncheon meeting this Thursday, Nov. 17, at Villa Felice.

Speaker at the luncheon will be the Rev. Phil Barrett, lieutenant governor of Kiwanis Club for this district and pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in San Jose. The Rev. Barrett is one of the most sought-after speakers in the area.

The three-day membership drive is under the direction of directors, Ken Mantle and Lee Sicard, who head the ambassador committee of the C. of C. Prizes will be awarded ambassadors obtaining the most members.

Dick Hardy, president of the Chamber of Commerce, will preside at the luncheon meeting, one of the last before he goes out of office next month. The membership of the C. of C. will vote this month for eight new directors from a slate of nominees that was approved at the last directors meeting. Bill Oltmann, headed the nomination committee.

Campbell Ave.'s future

As much as we regret that apparently it has become impractical to form an off-street parking district for downtown Campbell, we concede that perhaps it is a blessing in disguise.

Shelving the parking district may furnish the impetus that is needed to move ahead now on the long-needed improvement of Campbell Ave.

If the parking district had shown any signs of becoming a reality, then, naturally, the improvement of Campbell Ave. would have been a part and parcel of the same project, for the two endeavors are interlocked.

Now, without the off-street parking district as a deterrent, all efforts should be bent to improving Campbell Ave. in the most practical way that will best serve the entire community.

There is the danger, naturally, that pressure will be put on the city to start improving the street immediately, for it is long past due.

But we believe that, as long as it has been conceded, that no longer is it necessary to wait until the parking district gets off the ground, a definite goal should be established as to what Campbell Ave. is to be in the future.

We believe that, if the purpose of Campbell Ave. in the future is only to move traffic through town from one main throughfare to another, the improvement of the street would follow a different pattern than if, on the other hand, Campbell Ave. was to be a service street for community businesses.

We agree that there would not be too much of a difference in these concepts for basic improvements, i.e., resurfacing, etc.

But, as we see it, the whole question seems to be how far do we want to go with the improvement.

We can visualize a broad, attractive avenue, with a civic center complex adjacent to it, and with banks and office buildings and a few retail establishments lining each side.

We also can envision the street lined with trees, attractive electroliers and with all utilities underground.

It would be an attractive entranceway, if you will, to our city.

We say we can merely envision such an ideal situation.

We recognize, however, that it may not be practical. We also are aware that such an eventuality means that millions would be spent on the street instead of thousands.

What we are trying to convey in this editorial is that what to do about Campbell Ave. is a problem that has been with us for years.

Now that, for the first time, a determined effort is being made to get the ball rolling on the street, the problem is still with us.

If we sound a bit confused in this, it is because we are.

We are among the first to advocate that Campbell Ave. should be improved.

As a matter of fact, we think that the improvement of Campbell Ave. from Winchester to Bascom would probably be one issue in this community that would gain almost complete approval from all areas of the city.

Our point is simply that the improvements that are to be made should be more than just removing the rough spots.

All of us must concede that the Campbell Ave. today serves an entirely different purpose than it did years ago when all there was to Campbell was what is now known as the "downtown core".

Campbell Ave. between Bascom and Winchester is no longer the main part of this community, either from a business or residential point of view.

There are six other shopping centers within the city limits that far surpass the business that is done on that portion of Campbell Ave.

The subdivisions that have been built in the last 10 years or so on the fringes, far outstrip in population the residential area of the "old Campbell".

Thus, we maintain, we must change our sights as to what the objective should be for the Campbell Ave. of the future.

It is not logical to argue that it is an outstanding shopping area.

True there are still a number of excellent stores on the street but, let's face it, there are not enough of 'em to warrant it be classified as an outstanding shopping center.

And we do not believe that it will develop into a major shopping center in the future.

But there is a need for an improved and widened street, if for nothing else than to identify our community. As long as there will be a Campbell, Campbell Ave. will be in the spotlight.

The use of the street may change. But it will always remain as this city's identification mark.

Thus we heartily endorse this move to get Campbell Ave. improved...and soon.

But we wish we knew what kind of a street we really wanted and whether all of us concerned would be willing to pay for it.

and the Campbell councilmen are planning to take in the sessions.

North Las Vegas, a separate city, adjacent to the plush mecca in the district, has invited the City of Campbell during the convention to participate in a novel project that recognizes various cities of the country.

Each city that so desires can furnish a tree to the new park in North Las Vegas. The trees will be suitably marked. Apparently the idea is that strangers will be reminded of home when they stroll through the park and spot their city's own tree.

Campbell councilmen, however, figured that any spare trees around here were needed in this community.

THE INVITATION did not spell out exactly how the trees would get to North Las Vegas. The councilmen may have thought that it would be a wee bit awkward carrying a 5-gallon drum and a bushy tree aboard the plane.

Councilman Homer Hyde, however, suggested that the water company had a tree which had to be removed. He was willing to contribute the tree, he added...

But he didn't offer to carry it to Vegas.

Apparently Campbell won't be tree-represented. But there still might be some merit to this tree routine.

After all the trees would only lose their leaves in Las Vegas.

KEEPING UP with the new streets in this area during the past 10 years or so has been a pretty difficult task.

Maps become outdated from year to year as new streets are added.

Recently we hunted all over a map for a street that just didn't appear any place.

A news release came across the desk which designated some street as "cam BRIAN.

It took us a little while to figure out (it was early in the morning) 'Cambrian" was meant.

AS A RULE, we hesitate to call attention to typographical errors that appear in other newspapers, even as startling as some may be.

We know that the same thing could happen to us and we are well aware of that danger.

So we shuddered sympathetically along with the staff of the Los Gatos Times-Observer recently when a glaring typo in that paper changed "community action" to "communist action" in a headline on the front page.

It's difficult to explain such happenings. We know. We've been there.

The Los Gatos paper tried.

The apology that followed reported that "the inadvertent change of "ty" to "st" completely changed the meaning of the headline. We regret the error and apologize..."

They could have added: "And please forget it".

to the intersection.

But the delegation of mothers, headed by Mrs. Edward A. Boos of 291 Beverly Ct., claimed that the real danger exists when the youngsters step from the curb onto the crosswalk and then were in direct line of fire of the cars making a right turn off Campbell Ave. onto the expressway.

Wren said that a sign warning motorists that they were approaching a school crossing had been ordered. This would also help the situation, he thought.

The mothers agreed with this but emphasized that a crossing guard was also necessary to avoid a tragedy at the intersection.

Aiding Mrs. Boos in vigorously pointing out the dangers that exist by cars speeding to make the right turn were Mrs. Richard Bothman, 2330 Montezuma Dr., and Mrs. Mike Kennedy, 2248 Montezuma.

The councilmen agreed with the mother's point of view that a crossing guard stationed at the peak hours for school children would activate the "walk" signal and also slow down right turn traffic.

They unanimously approved the motion of Ed Rogers for a crossing guard. In making his motion, however, Rogers explained that eventually it appeared a pedestrian overpass was the only solution.

His statement met with enthusiastic approval from the mothers.

In another matter affecting pedestrian overpasses over expressways, the councilmen received a report of the proposed policy on that issue now before the County Transportation Policy Committee.

In effect, the policy would stipulate that the school districts must indicate the need for such overpasses and that only 50% financing would be forthcoming from expressway funds, if it was found that an overpass was the answer.

In another matter at the council meeting in which the mothers took an active interest, Mrs. H. Hara, of 923 Whitehall Ave., criticized both the service and the charges levied by the Los Gatos Scavenger Co., for trash and garbage pickup service.

She claimed that the scavenger firm that serves Campbell was not competitive in its charges compared to other cities.

Because the figures she presented as to charges did not match those that the city staff had obtained, staff was directed to study the matter further and report.

Mrs. Hara's argument was bolstered by Fred Sahadi, owner of a large apartment complex, who also complained about the service and charges of the Los Gatos Scavenger Co., pertaining to bulk pickups.

IN REPOSE--An even dozen two-month old Basset Hound puppies grab a few moments of "shut-eye" at the Bill McLain residence at 431 Queens Court, Campbell. "Molly", the McLain's Basset Hound, in September gave birth to a litter of 13. One puppy died but 12 of them have grown into active and lively canine juvenile delinquents. Only one of the registered dogs will be kept by the McLains.

The leaders in the Campbell voting in these districts were all elected.

Bruce Allen, candidate for superior court judge was elected over William Fienberg of Palo Alto. In Campbell Allen ran ahead also 3370 to 2681.

Congressman Charles Gubser, Republican incumbent seeking his eighth term in the House of Representatives, easily won re-election in the 10th district. In Campbell Gubser polled 4594 votes to 2163 for George Leppert.

Governor Pat Brown lost to Governor-elect Ronald Reagan, the Republican challenger, in Campbell by almost 1000 votes, 3954 to 2966.

Robert Finch, Republican, who was elected lieutenant governor over the incumbent Glenn Anderson won in Campbell also 4054 to 2754. Incumbent Secretary of State Frank Jordan carried Campbell over Norman Schlei, Democrat, 3745 to 2853.

Campbell voters turned down Proposition 16, the so-called obscenity measure, by 4818 to 2568. The measure was defeated statewide also.

Local voters also favored Proposition 1-a by a good margin, 4736 to 1641. The local electorate opposed the reducing of the present two-thirds vote to 60% required for general obligation bonds for school districts. The vote here was 3248 against to 2681 in favor of Proposition 4.

Campbell voters also turned down the $21.5 bond issue for the West Valley College with 3022 against the bond measure and 2774 in favor. A two-thirds majority was necessary for passage.

The bond issue failed to get approval in the entire district.

Preparations underway for "Yuletide at Montalvo"

"Yuletide at Montalvo", an event which traditionally opens the West Valley holiday season, is scheduled to be held this year on Dec. 2, 3, and 4, from 10 a.m. until 5 in the afternoon.

Situated in the Saratoga foothills, Villa Montalvo was originally the summer home of the late U.S. Senator James D. Phelan, of San Francisco. The lavish, two-story Mediterranean structure was built by the Senator in 1912 on 175 wooded acres overlooking the beautiful Santa Clara Valley.

Upon his death in 1930 Senator Phelan bequethed the Villa to the community to be used as a cultural center for the encouragement of art, architecture, drama, literature and music. It is now almost continually occupied by several Artists-in-residence.

SANTA'S WORKSHOP

The annual Yuletide Festival is sponsored by the Montalvo Service Group of 200 volunteer workers. Since early summer they have been busy in "Santa's Workshop" in the Villa, creating colorful, handcrafted holiday gifts and decorator items for exhibit and sale at the Festival.

Receipts from the Festival are used for maintainence and improvement of the building and grounds. More than 3000 visitors last year provided an income of $10,000, of which $1000 is now being used for a communications system, which will permit the piping of Christmas music throughout the Villa and grounds.

In addition to exhibits which have been created by the members there will be hundreds of items contributed to the Festival by outstanding artists of Central California.

Various well-known choral groups will entertain intermittently with traditional Christmas carols. Tea will be served in the dining hall each afternoon. Donations will be $1.50 for adults, $1 for students accompanied by a teacher, and 75 cents for children under 12 years.

Witches and spooks abound at Jaycee party

One of this city's most energetic civic groups is the Campbell Junior Chamber of Commerce and its auxiliary, the Campbell Jaycettes, organized just three years ago. The two groups have contributed much service and several projects to Campbell.

The Jaycees have sponsored a Blood Drive for servicemen in Viet Nam, and given of their time and finances to create a "mini-park" complete with fountain and redwood bench at the corner of Harrison and Campbell in cooperation with the Campbell Park Department.

The Jaycettes chose "Shady Acres", a a Campbell nursing home, as their project. The ladies remember birthdays of the patients, and hold parties for them on Halloween, Thanksgiving and Christmas. They rented an ambulance last year, and took one of the bedridden patients on a tour of the city to see the Christmas lights.

Robert Dalzell is president of the Jaycees, which meets the first Tuesday of the month for dinner at Andy's Restuarant, 700 E. Campbell Ave. Business meetings are held the third Thursday of the month at Campbell City Hall.

The Jaycettes meet at member's homes the second Wednesday of each month. Mrs. Jerry Duncan is president.

Any Campbell businessman between the ages of 21 and 35 is eligible for membership in the Campbell Jaycees.

GUESS WHO?--That's Mr. and Mrs. Dave Norman behind those cigarette boxes. They were the prize winning couple at the Campbell Jaycees Halloween costume party.

LET'S EAT--Mr. and Mrs. Al Blaine relax and enjoy refreshments at the Jaycee's Halloween party on Saturday, Oct. 29. The Blaines were dressed as Monks for the gay affair.

Football season nears climax; Westmont, Del Mar senior plays

Camden Chatter

by JAN LOWDEN

WHAT'S NEW AROUND CAMPUS:

Three Camden girls have been chosen as finalists for Camden's annual football queen. The girls will not know who the queen is to be until the rally before the traditional Thanksgiving game against Del Mar. The rally will be held Nov. 18.

The queen is crowned at the rally instead of during halftime so that the team may see their queen. The finalists are: Tina Clementi, Maggie Findall, and Martha Keeler. The queen is chosen by secret ballot by the football team.

About fifty Camden students attended the Stanford Repertory Theater's production of Antony and Cleopatra held Nov. 5.

This play tells of the tragic results of the love of Mark Antony and Cleopatra, queen of Egypt. Following the performance the students were given the opportunity to question the actors who portrayed Octavious, Caesar and Cleopatra.

Six Camden Juniors were chosen as semi-finalists for the annual A.F.S. program. This program is designed to give students an opportunity to actually live and go to school in another country. The students are chosen by grades, ability, and by recommendations. The six semi-finalists were, Howard Mayberry, Paul Willis, Roger Heath, Micki Wiliky, Russ Rodgers, and Gayle Towner.

Out of these six two were chosen to represent Camden. They are, Roger Heath, who chose the summer program, and Russ Rodgers, who chose the school program.

"The Role of Foreign Language in Education" was the topic presented by the Camden High P.T.A., Nov. 9. Mrs. Vivian Stallkamp, Campbell Union High School District Supervisor of Foreign Language conducted the program. She was assisted by teachers from the language department. Camden's A.F.S. student was at this time introduced to the parents.

SENIOR FORTUNES

Nov. 1 the senior "mosts" were voted on and the results were:

Most Likely to Succeed: Annette Chaplin, John Rasmussen; Class Einsteins: Kathy Bender, Jerry Meredith; Most Spirited: Tina Clementi, Jim Jelincich; Best All Around: Stephanie Johnson, Larry North; Best Dancers: Linda Gonzalez, Larry Greene; Most Friendly: Vikki Bare, Erich Von Jaroschka Pohl; Best Athletes: Cathy Ramos, Butch Torres; Best Dressed: Arlyne Kajita, Larry Agrella; Best Looking: Martha Keeler, Brett Jensen; Flirt & Wolf: Chris Baclawski, Reni Keim; Best Leaders: Lexi Knazovich, John Sequeira.

Camden's Varsity football team lost another important game against Blackford High last Friday morning. The Cougar's played hard but couldn't beat the offensive plays of Blackford. The score ended 6-13. This Friday Camden will play it's rival school Leigh on Leigh's field. Leigh has yet to lose a game and the Cougars have yet to win.

Campbell Crier

by DAVE TURNER

Early of a Veterans Day morn the mighty Warriors of Westmont laid siege to the sacred and hallowed ground of the Campbell Buccaneers. Calling on every ounce of reserve strength the powerful Bucs were able to muster the forces necessary to repel the threat and alight victoriously from the gridiron spectacular staged by the two archrivals.

Rebounding from a defensive lapse which gave Westmont a 12-7 halftime advantage, the fired-up Buccaneers returned in the second half to hold the Warriors scoreless while adding two tallies of their own for a 21 to 12 victory. The win enabled Campbell to retain its second place standing in the WVAL with a 4 and 1 win-loss record. The Bucs, however, are forced to share that spot with Saratoga, with both teams trailing Leigh by one full game.

The Soph-Frosh also brought their record to 4 and 1 with a very impressive 20 to 0 win over the little Warriors on Thursday.

The Campbell teams will travel to Saratoga this Friday, Nov. 18, for a pair of very important contests. In a thrilling night doubleheader, the Soph-Frosh will start at 6 p.m. while the varsity encounter is slated to begin at 8.

QUARTER ENDS

People have used the expression, "How time flies" until it is now trite and nearly meaningless. But a person might be inclined to accept the verbage if he were told that the present school year is one fourth gone. Yes, last week was the ninth week of school this year and, hence the end of the first quarter. It is bad enough when a freshman realizes that the time remaining to improve his marks has completely elapsed, but ask any senior and he'll assure you that time does indeed "fly", and at a velocity whose increases are commensurate with the advances of the jet age.

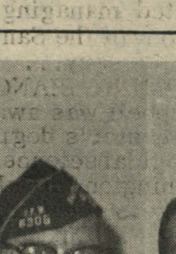
Warrior World



by RUSS LONG

On Thursday, Friday, and Saturday nights the town of Topeki will descend upon the Warrior cafetorium, to the tune of "The Tea House of the August Moon," Westmont's third annual Senior play.

During the occupation of Okinawa following the war, the American captain, Fisbee, played by Harlan Edson, tries to bring democracy to the village. But the only thing the villagers want is a tea house. The villagers present Fisbee with a Geisha, Lotus Blossom, portrayed by Barbara Huntley and things are further fouled up by a brandy-drinking goat. Don't miss the fun, either Thursday, Friday, or Saturday night starting at 8 p.m. Tickets are on sale from any senior, or can be purchased at the door.

Who is better, the KLIV Prunes, or the Westmont men's faculty? Find out Saturday at 1 p.m. in the Warrior Coliseum. Sponsored by the German and Spanish Clubs, the proceeds will go toward club activities.

Gordon Grabill, the Warrior Pep Band director, challenges any other pep band in the area to come over and try to prove that they are superior to the Westmont Pep Band. Everything is legal, except blood.

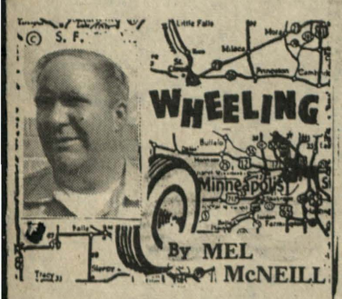
VISIT S.J. STATE

Yesterday the senior journalism class, who publish the student paper, "Warriors' Shield", toured the facilities of the San Jose State Spartan Daily, the college newspaper. Leaving right after lunch, the staff was shown the press room, talked to the editor, and had a general lesson in how a daily paper is handled.

A senior assembly was held last week to decide between the San Jose Women's Club or the Los Altos Hills Country Club for the Senior Ball. After discussions led by Bob Swisher, senior class president, and Dick Walker, senior cabinet member, the vote showed Los Altos the winner, much to everyone's approval. February 25 was the date selected.

Chuck Hawthorne's second touchdown of the game gave Campbell the lead and the Bucs went on to score a 21-12 victory over the Warriors Friday last. The Warriors led the game briefly during the second period, but the Bucs came back in the third quarter to score again and go on to win.

This Friday the Warriors meet the Del Mar Dons in the Warrior Coliseum at 3 p.m.



Today a look into the fabulous future of auto transportation... It should not be too long, if some Detroit designers have their way, before some of us are driving cars without pistons. The idea in mind is an automobile powered by a gas-turbine, the same kind that powers jet and turboprop airplanes No dream, this car has been in experimentation for several years now. The advantages of the gas turbine are: It is nearly vibration free; It does away with complex gear systems; It is twice as powerful as the piston engine; and it will run on cheaper fuels. But the engine is a fuel hog. However, great strides have been made to remedy this, and it won't be too long before such a car is for sale.....

John Dixon heads local March of Dimes campaign

John Dixon, Campbell insurance broker, will lead the March of Dimes against birth defects in this community during January, announces Robert Trefry, county volunteer director.

The March of Dimes is the fund-raising effort which supports the birth defects research, education and care programs of The National Foundation.

Although this will be Dixon's first year as a MoD volunteer, he has participated in numerous other community activities. He is a past president of the Kiwanis Club of West San Jose, a past member of the Campbell Union School District board of trustees, and a 1964 United Fund worker. His business is Farley Insurance Agency.

When he took on the MoD position, Dixon declared that he is impressed with the work being done by The National Foundation, which turned its efforts to the battle against birth defects after working so successfully against poliomyelitis. He pointed out that nearly 1 1/2 million American children under the age of six are birth defect victims, spending approximately 6 million days in hospitals each year at the cost of more than $180 million.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sir:

I am proud to state that I was a friend of the late Jack Fischer, and I should like very much to say a word or two in behalf of the current effort that is being made to rename the San Tomas School to the Jack C. Fischer School.

The Campbell Union School District's honorable Board of Trustees recently went on record as being opposed to the consideration of name change until such time as sentimentality for Jack had cooled. At their meeting it was clearly stated that to name a school after a person was a precedent-shattering move.

It was also stated that the district favored naming its schools after the streets upon which they are located. For example, San Tomas School is on Abbot and Hacienda Avenue, and Capri School (newly constructed) is on Chapman and Virginia. One has only to check the roster to find that few schools in the district are named after the streets on which they are built.

It would greatly contribute to the honor and dignity of the district to name a school after a man who gave so much of himself to the children of Campbell.

Sincerely,
James St. Germaine
935 Audrey Avenue

RENAMING SCHOOL

Dear Mr. Vierhus:

As you know San Tomas Elementary School recently lost Jack Fischer, its principal of many years. Having had three sons attend San Tomas under his administration, I feel sincerely that some fitting memorial to Mr. Fischer is in order.

Renaming San Tomas School for Jacob C. Fischer would be a lasting reminder to his school community of his fine work there. Jack's deep feeling for children and his concern for their well-being went considerably beyond the professional requirements of his position.

I hope that you will add your support to this suggestion. The unique contributions of Mr. Fischer to the San Tomas school and the children and parents of the San Tomas area richly deserve this recognition.

Respectfully yours,
Ben Sweeney

Drama students grow beards

Dave Replinger, 1405 Bent Dr., Campbell, and Tom Oleniacz, 765 Concord Ave., San Jose, who are cast in key rolls in Hugh and Margaret Williams' hilarious "The Irregular Verb to Love," to be presented by the West Valley College drama department on Dec. 1, 2 and 3 are growing their own beards for the production.

The stage crew has been working on the detailed set since Sept. and are building it "from the ground up," according to Charles R. Hoover, drama director.

First dress rehearsal is scheduled for Nov. 27.

Reservations will be made by particular performance nights, but not by seats. Admission will be $1.50 for adults, and 75 cents for children and West Valley College students with Associated Student Body cards.

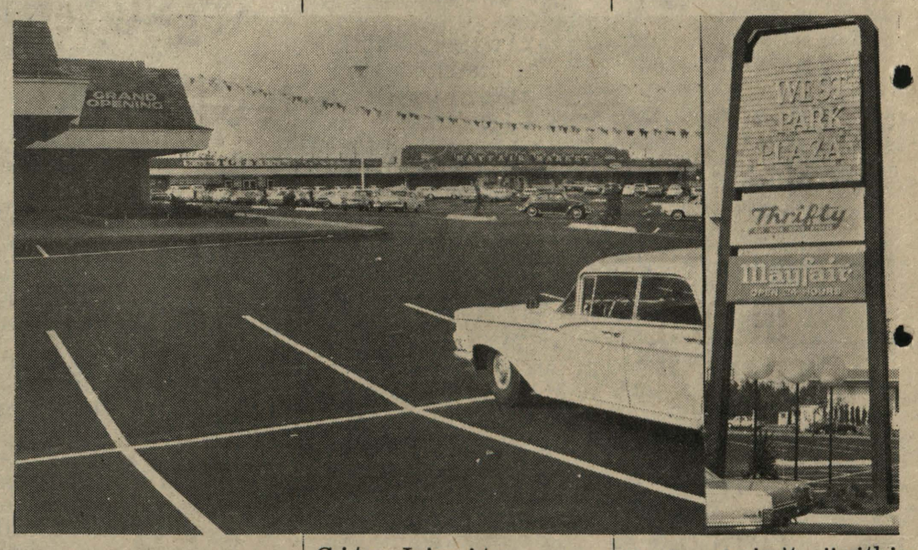
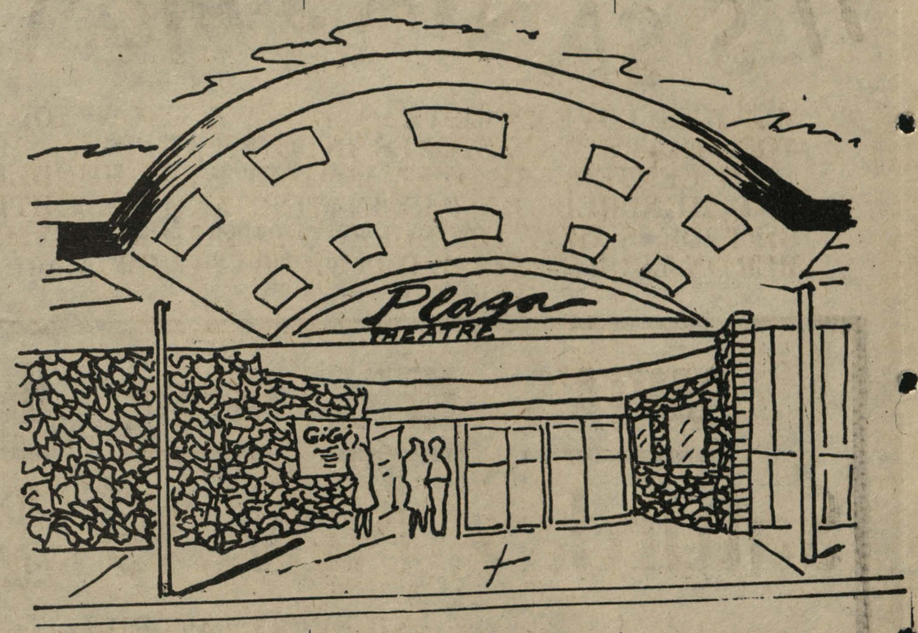
NEWS ABOUT LOCAL BUSINESSES, AND BUSINESS PEOPLE

DELICIOUS!--The delicacies, gentlemen, are the ones displayed in the cases, and upon the shelves! The lovely ladies in the photo, are the co-owners of the CONTINENTAL DELICATESSEN, at 1712 Winchester Blvd., across the street from Winchester Shopping Center. Ursula Lehmann, and Maria Schwarz, have had years of continental, and Canadian background in the delicate art of Delicatess-ing. They speak German, Austrian, and English, delightfully!

CURRIED LIQUORS?--Something NEW has happened on Campbell Ave., next to the R.R. tracks. Curry's Liquors has taken over the old "Party House", and the present owner G.V. Curry, recently had new signs installed . . . and a very fine NEW SERVICE . . . called . . . PERSONAL service!



WEST PARK PLAZA--Just to the EAST!... Although this newly completed Shopping Center on Winchester Blvd., and Payne, is to the N. East of our City Limits, we ALMOST include it... Monica Lane is just to the right of it...and Hamilton is just to the S. West of it...so we are "within its influence...or is it, "within ours? Anyway, it is one of the Campbell Family. Keep your eye on this one!



GEE...GEE--The Plaza Theatre, in the new addition to Winchester Shopping PLAZA, at Winchester and Budd, is opening tonight, Nov. 16 with "Gigi" as its feature picture. The long-awaited opening was received in Campbell with a Gala Ribbon Cutting Ceremony on Tuesday evening, as the Campbell Press was being printed. More about this new theatre is certain to be forthcoming!

Supervisors commend county employee for rescue effort

The rescue from drowning of eight-year old Chris Rodriguez last May 11, by County Health Department Sanitarian F. William Garland, and by Chris's playmates, was officially commended last week by the Board of Supervisors.

In addition, the Campbell Fire Department's resuscitation crew, which arrived after the boy was breathing without difficulty and then applied oxygen and first aid treatment for shock, was complimented by the Board.

Board Chairman, Charles A. Quinn presented a framed certificate in recognition of Garland's action. The Board praised Garland for successfully reviving young Rodriguez with mouth-to-mouth resuscitation, and also congratulated two unidentified 12-year old girls who dragged him up from the bottom of the pool and out of the water with Garland's help.

The near-tragedy occurred in a swimming pool at 1450 Ontario Lane, Campbell, when young Rodriguez of 3921 Via Cristbol, San Jose foundered while swimming with friends. The two girls noticed Chris floating at the bottom of the pool and with Bill Garland's help, got him onto dry land.

Garland, who had been checking the pool for the Health Department, was coming out of a utility room just as they were pulling him from the water.

Armed robber loses nerve

A nervous bandit attempted to hold up the Speedee Mart at 75 N. San Tomas Road Sunday night, but lost his nerve and ran out without a cent.

Clerk Henry Batis, 1629 Calado Ct., told Campbell Police that a man, about 32 years of age, with olive complexion, wearing glasses and a brown jacket walked into the store. The suspect drew a 38 caliber revolver from his jacket and said, "This is a stick-up. Put all your money in a paper bag."

Batis told officers he put $80 in currency in the bag, but told the suspect the area was regularly patroled by police. A customer walked in and Batis told officers he ran with the bag to the rear of the market. The bandit hesitated and then ran outside to a car, a 1962 Ford, later found to be stolen.

Monthly meetings are an excellent opportunity for mothers of Little Leaguers to familiarize themselves with the various committees, rules and regulations of the League.

Mrs. Jan Mestice is the retiring president, Mrs. Terry Asquith is the new president. The other 1967 Board Members are Mrs. Barbara Ferrari, vice-president; Mrs. Maud Holman, treasurer and Mrs. Shirley Oswald, secretary.

Six nominees for Optimist Youth Award

A representative from each of Campbell High School District's six high schools has been selected to participate in the Youth Appreciation Week program Thursday, Nov. 17, sponsored by the Optimist Clubs of San Jose, Fremont and Campbell.

Oran Slaght, president of the Campbell Optimist Club, reports the nominees are James Chamberlin, Campbell High School; Paul Egerman, Del Mar High School; Fred Franco, Leigh High School; John Rasmussen, Camden High School; Ellen Rommele, Blackford High School and Gregory Wiles, Westmont High School.

These students will be among other finalists from schools in the Santa Clara Valley area who have also performed outstandingly in school, at home and in their community. The "Youth of the Year" award will be presented at the annual Youth Appreciation Luncheon sponsored by the Optimists Clubs at Lou's Village, at noon on Thursday.

PROMOTED--Gilbert W. Johnson, formerly of Campbell, has been promoted to Seattle branch manager for Interstate United Vending Corp. He and his family will make their new home in Bremerton, Wash. Johnson and his wife, the former Glenelle Walton, are graduates of Campbell High School. He is the son of Fred Johnson, 349 W. Rincon Ave.

Council votes 3-2 to delay action on housing authority

A divided City Council Monday night decided to wait until more information was forthcoming before approving even the "concept" of a county housing authority.

The council had been requested by the county supervisors to report its feelings on a proposed formation of a Public Housing Authority by Nov. 25.

Making a pitch for the council's favorable action was Tier Johnson who urged the need of a county authority in order to act under the amendment "Section 23" to the Public Housing Authority which would allow the federal government to subsidize rentals for private housing. Johnson claimed it would greatly assist elderly poor people on fixed incomes.

Councilman Bill Smeed made the motion to defer action until after the Inter-City Council meeting when the matter would be further explained. He said he disliked being rushed into any action that could have far-reaching significance.

Bill Ellis, this city's representative on the EOC, also urged the council to go slow until all the ramifications of the situation had been clarified.

Mayor Ralph Doetsch and Councilman Homer Hyde voted with Smeed while Councilmen Charles Rose and Ed Rogers opposed it.

In another divided vote action, the council approved the recommendation of the Planning Commission which would designate Union Ave. as a street on which a mobile home park could be located. The commission had granted a use permit for the modern mobile home, to be developed by Maclyn Morris and Fred Sahadi, subject to the council's approval of Union Ave.

Doetsch and Smeed opposed the action with Rose, Rogers and Hyde favoring it.

In other actions, the council:

--APPROVED the application of Harold Allen Hall for a billiard center to be located at 1775 Winchester in the Campbell Shopping Center. Councilman Rogers indicated that he thought a report should have been submitted as to how the other merchants in the center felt about the idea before the council took action.

--APPROVED the request of Charles Ingraham for a solicitors permit for the purpose of sharpening scissors and knives.

--GAVE FIRST READING to amendments to the present ordinance regulating billiard parlors.

--APPROVED the report of Bill Wren, public works director, that the trees at 456 Harrison should be "severely pruned" at the owner's expense.

--APPROVED the revisions to the Campbell Lighting District, including annexations and the changing of the tax base. Councilman Bill Smeed opposed the revisions because he felt that some areas within the lighting district were being taxed yet did not have any street lights.

--APPROVED the proposed plan line for the extension of Latimer Ave. to Central which would be north of the original plan. The Planning Commission had given prior approval to the new plan line.

--ADOPTED an emergency ordinance that would place interim zoning of C-2-S on property directly across from Breuner's that recently had been cleared of a septic tank operation.

--AGREED to advance funds for the improvement of one part of Budd Ave. (approximately $9000) until the time that the proposed subdivision in the area would pay for it.

--AMENDED and sent back to the Planning Commission the zone change for the parcel on which the mobile home park is planned on Union Ave. in order to have the zoning comply with the McGlincey neighborhood plan.

PRESENTS AWARD--Mrs. Tugwell McDaniel of Los Gatos, (left) civic beautification chairman, Santa Clara Valley District, California Garden Clubs, presents the Sears and Roebuck Grant of $150 to Mrs. Ward Brannon, president of Campbell Garden Club, for their Hamilton Ave. Beautification Project. Looking on are the co-chairmen of the project, Mrs. James Hartman and Mrs. Minnie Snyder.

FOOD LOST

People in the United States spend about 19 per cent of their take-home pay for food compared with Russians' 40 per cent.

New recovery room for L.G. hospital

Completion of a new recovery room, first stage in long-range expansion plans of Community Hospital of Los Gatos-Saratoga, was announced by Hospital administrator Robert P. Hannum.

The recovery room, will accomodate 11 patients. Its completion will help alleviate a backlog of surgical cases and help keep pace with the increasing patient load at the facility, which will be four-years-old next month, Hannum added.

The recovery room is equipped with piped in oxygen and suction equipment.

Opening of the new room is the first stage in future hospital expansion, which will include increasing present 156 bed capacity by 50 beds, addition of a new pediatrics unit and installation of a separate coronary care unit. The hospital is located at 815 Pollard Rd., Los Gatos.

MORE ABOUT Campbell Ave.

tors emphasized that their action pertained only to this year. With the dropping of plans for an off-street parking district, which has held up any major improvement plans for the street, it is hoped by civic officials that Campbell Ave. will undergo a major improvement program during the next year.

Such a project, it was pointed out, could ultimately result in an attractive widened thoroughfare with new-type electroliers and utilities underground which would make the street a "gateway" to the community.

Until that time, however, the directors felt that hanging 15-year old decorations (purchased by the C. of C. five years ago for $3000) and now in poor condition, would detract from rather than improve the appearance.

In taking the action, the directors reviewed the history of the annual problem. Harry Lind, in charge of the fund drive last year, reported that only $155 was raised from business people and the cost to the C. of C. was almost $400.

He reported a general feeling of apathy about the program. He pointed out also that merchants outside of the downtown Campbell area were not interested in assisting.

Bill Oltmann, treasurer of the C. of C., and an accountant with offices on Campbell Ave., confirmed Lind's report and made the motion to drop the project this year. His motion was seconded by George Vierhus and carried unanimously.

It was explained that 22 strings of lights were purchased from Palo Alto in 1961 for more than $3000. The money for their purchase was contributed by business people in Campbell.

The project has been annually a joint one with the city cooperating in the major task of installation. It was estimated that $1200 in man hours was contributed each year by the city. In 1961 the record also showed that the city contributed $270 to pay for the energy used by the lights during the holiday season. However, the C. of C. has picked up the PG&E tab in most of the subsequent years.

Last year, the report also showed that only 17 strings could be salvaged and that it was estimated that only 12 strings would be in good enough condition this year to be used.

Age, weather and poor storage facilities were suggested as causes for the deterioration.

With respect to the improvement of downtown Campbell Ave., city officials have indicated that they desire to have a recommendation from the Downtown Redevelopment Committee, headed by John Faber, as to which of the three proposed improvement plans the committee favored.

At a meeting of the committee last week, all three plans were described by Bill Wren, public works director.

The minimum plan would not require any further land acquisition and would cost an estimated $157,398; the second plan would involve purchase of additional rights-of-way and is estimated to cost $309,527.

The "ultimate" plan would involve cutting a new street north of Campbell Ave. and would cost between $600,000 and $700,000.

with "Charlie" Gubser

Over the past year political pundits and commentators have made much of the so-called "white backlash". It was therefore not surprising that in the wake of the stunning upsets of the November 8 election most losers and a few winners seized upon the prefabricated explanation of a "white backlash" for their post-election comments.

I believe that with the exception of the deep South, the results of November 8 were due to a "taxpayers' backlash" which had no primary connection with racial problems.

In my contacts with the electorate, I have found an overwhelming resentment on the part of taxpayers in all walks of life at having to work and pay taxes to finance an incessant parade of new programs wherein government assumes responsibilities which prideful individuals should assume for themselves. I have found the general public willing to help their less fortunate fellow Americans in an honest effort to help themselves, but very resentful of programs which mislead the economically underprivileged into believing that the mere passage of a law, the establishment of a bureau, and the spending of taxpayers' money could achieve an economic millennium. Unexpectedly I found that my campaign statement which won the most widespread approval was "Government's responsibility is to assure every individual an equal right to try. The individual's responsibility is to try."

On November 8 the taxpayers of America said loudly and clearly that they were tired of government promising too much and attempting new programs even before earlier ones were efficiently and properly planned. Throughout my campaign I heard this typical remark: "Why is the government starting new programs each day with our money when it can't even do a satisfactory job of delivering the mail--one of the oldest functions of government?"

There are many thoughtful persons who believe that extravagant promises have excited false hopes among the poor and the underprivileged and that when these hopes went unrealized the disappointment and frustration boiled over in resentment, riots, and violence in the streets. Though there are other reasons for the recent waves of national disrespect for law and order, undoubtedly this frustration is a part of the cause.

Because racial minorities figured predominently in major riots, some have jumped to the conclusion that resentment and a "white backlash" caused the taxpayers' revolt. In my opinion those who insist upon explaining every human reaction by attaching a racial connotation to it are performing a disservice by ignoring reality. There were deeper reasons.

The truth is the American people grew tired of federal spending for programs which are not working because they have not been properly planned. They grew tired of a mounting national debt in times of prosperity and most of all they resented the tremendous increases in the cost of living which have resulted from government deficits.

Truly the last election was a "taxpayers' backlash"!

THANK YOU!

A successful campaign requires the support of many people. I want to express my sincere and heartfelt appreciation to all of the wonderful people who made our campaign successful

I pledge myself to merit your support by making every effort to give you the fullest representation possible during my term of office.

1 YEAR AGO

The blood drive for servicemen fighting in Viet Nam will feature Archie Moore, retired undefeated heavyweight champion of the world in person at 5 p.m., in the West Valley College cafeteria. He will show a film of the Moore-Durelle fight; admission will be a pint of blood or an attempt to give blood.

An outright gift of five acres of land north of the Bayshore Freeway, in one of the sites now under consideration for a campus, was made last week to West Valley College by a Santa Clara landowner.

Men outnumber women students two to one in West Valley College's first-year class. This and other significant statistics were brought to light in a "student characteristic survey" made recently by Counselors William H. Ott and Virginia Stump and reported last night to the board of trustees.

5 YEARS AGO

Campbell police report that both the Hamilton School and the Campbell High School were broken into over the last weekend. A door was jimmied at the Hamilton School and about $3 taken from the principal and secretary's desks. The dean's office was ransacked, but nothing was reported taken.

Three members of Boy Scout Troop 309, Fred Lee Jones, Harold Malone and Jared Jones, were recently presented with the coveted "God and Country Award". The scouts received the honor for their work in church activities at the Congregational Church of Campbell, sponsor of the Scout Troop.

Dr. Donald D. Woodington, superintendent of the Moreland School District, will attend a nationwide conference of School Facilities Council in St. Petersburg, Florida, on Dec. 13-16. Dr. Woodington is a member of the governing board of the group and is the only California administrator included in the Council's board of governors.

10 YEARS AGO

Campbell Civil Defense will go into action at 6 tonight for "Operation Quiver", in a mock drill simulating the 1906 earthquake and emergency action to be taken in such a disaster, according to A. M. Cook, local deputy director under Mayor John M. Chargin.

Voters in Santa Clara County followed the National trend Tuesday when President Dwight D. Eisenhower and Vice President Richard M. Nixon were landslided back into office by an overwhelming majority of votes cast against Democrats Adlai E. Stevenson and Sen. Estes Kefauver.

Streets in the business district of Campbell will not be decorated for Christmas season unless the business and professional people contribute at least $800 toward the job, Mrs. Emily McConnell, chairman of the Merchants Committee of the Chamber of Commerce announced this week.

15 YEARS AGO

Sheriff's inspectors are still seeking parties involved in an attempt to burn the dressing room of the boy's gym at Campbell High School Monday morning. According to reports, the arsonists poured gasoline into the locker room and then threw a torch into the room after climbing to the roof and breaking a skylight. Cement construction of the room and steel lockers on the walls of the room kept the fire from causing more than superficial damage.

Forty-five petitions calling for a special election to decide the issue of incorporation for the City of Campbell were submitted to the County assessor's office Monday and are now being checked by him for the required 25 percent assessed valuations of property and necessary 25 percent of real property holders of the proposed incorporated ae area.

Providing they can win final approval of the project, subdividers Lionel J. Tilson and Philp S. Sanfilippo plan immediate construction of their proposed shopping center at Saratoga and Quito Roads. Tilson stated that work will start as soon as government restrictions will permit use of vital materials.

Fight erupts in apartments

A complaint by a tenant about excessive noise in the apartment above him, erupted into a violent fist fight Sunday night at 1147 W. Hamilton Ave.

Campbell Police were called when neighbors heard the disturbance. The victim, Weston Peterson, was found on the lawn between the buildings. He was taken to Campbell Community Hospital where he was treated for cuts and bruises and later released. Peterson also had two teeth knocked out. An investigation is being conducted by Campbell Police.
